Canada Library Month / Ontario Public Library Week

October is Canadian Library Month. During this month, libraries and library partners raise awareness for the valuable role libraries play in the lives of people across Canada.

In Ontario, the first week of October features First Nations Public Library Week (October 3-7), and the third week of October is Ontario Public Library Week (October 16-22).

Branches will be holding special events throughout Ontario Public Library week including hosting special performers and customer appreciation days. Events will be listed at OPL.ca as the dates/activities are confirmed.

Community Conversations: Intellectual Freedom

In celebration of Canadian Library Month, OPL's Community Conversations series is hosting a discussion on intellectual freedom between OPL Board Chair, Jeff Knoll and our special guest speaker, James Turk, Director for the Centre for Free Expression and distinguished visiting scholar at the Toronto Metropolitan University. The discussion will focus on intellectual freedom, how it impacts society as a whole and in everyday life, and what we can all do together to protect intellectual freedom into the future.

An announcement of the selected artist will be made once the contract has been finalized and signed. Details on the project and timeline will be brought forward to the OPL Board in October.

Thank to you the voting jury for their time and thoughtful consideration. The voting jury members were:
