Tax Relief Due to Sickness of Extreme Poverty

What is a sickness or extreme poverty appeal?

Both the Municipal Act, 2001 and the City of Toronto Act, 2006 permit municipalities to cancel, reduce or refund all or part of taxes if you are unable to pay your taxes because of sickness or extreme poverty. If you believe you are entitled to tax relief for a particular tax year, you must apply before February 28 of next year. Applications are made to the municipality, unless the municipality has passed a by-law that gives the power to grant this tax relief to the Assessment Review Board (ARB).

How do I file this appeal?

If you are unable to pay your taxes because of sickness or extreme poverty you should contact your municipality for information on how to apply for tax relief. They will let you know the process to follow.

In some cases you will have to apply to the municipality and then, if you are not satisfied with the outcome, you can appeal to the ARB. In other cases you may be able to apply directly to the ARB.

In either case the deadline for applying for tax relief for each tax year is February 28 of the following year. For example, if you are seeking tax relief from your 2016 taxes, you would need to file your application on or before February 28, 2017.

File your appeal using the Sickness or Extreme Poverty Appeal Form, available here.

After filling out the correct form, send it to the ARB before the deadline, there is no filing fee for Sickness or Extreme Poverty Appeals. Send your appeal:

By email: arb.registrar@ontario.ca, or

By mail: 15 Grosvenor Street, Ground Floor, Toronto Ontario, M7A 2G6

You will be mailed a letter letting you know that the ARB has received your appeal and that a hearing will be scheduled. You will also be provided with a date to start working on your appeal, which will be heard by summary proceeding.

For more information, see the General and Summary Proceedings information sheet, available here.

How do I prepare for my hearing?

To prepare for your hearing, bring two photocopies of all documents you plan on presenting as evidence. Your evidence should:

- relate to the tax year of your appeal, and
- relate to all adults living with you.

Some examples of the kinds of evidence you should bring to prove your claim include:

- income statements from any source, including an employer, long term disability, spouses income, income from a tenant, or any other source,
- personal income tax assessments from the Canada Revenue Agency,
- documentation related to the Ontario Disability Support Program,
- personal bank statements for all of your bank accounts,
- a listing of all your assets and their value, including the value of the property, any other properties, vehicles, investments, RRSP's, Canada Savings Bonds, and any other assets,
- copies of monthly bills, and a detailed list of expenses, including items such as medications, medical supplies, transportation, loan payments, mortgage payments, groceries, personal expenses, child care, housing, life insurance, and any other expenses,
- supporting documents from doctors or other medical professionals for any medical care,
- supporting documents to show that you were unable to work because of sickness, such as documents from the Workplace Safety and Insurance Board, and
- any other evidence that you feel will support your position.

Under the ARB's Rules of Practice and Procedure, you are required to disclose to the municipality all documents in your possession, control or power, that are relevant to the matters raised in your appeal, even if you do not intend to rely on a particular document at the hearing.

Note: Send one copy of all your evidence to the municipality before your hearing date. Contact the Revenue or Tax Department of your municipality to find out their mailing address.

Where will my hearing take place?

You will be sent a letter in the mail with the date, time and location of your hearing. The hearing will be held in the municipality you live in or as close to the municipality as possible.

Can anyone watch my hearing?

No. Appeals that deal with sickness or extreme poverty are private. These hearings only involve the person who filed the appeal, the municipality, and the ARB.

What if I am going to be late to my hearing?

Please call the ARB as soon as you realize you may be late. E-mail arb.registrar@ontario.ca.

Will the hearing venue be accessible?

ARB hearings are held in municipal sites throughout Ontario. The ARB's offices are accessible and the Accessibility Standards for Customer Service applies to municipalities. The ARB strives to schedule hearings at accessible facilities. If you have any questions about accessibility, please call the ARB and ask to speak to the Accessibility Coordinator.

What if I need an interpreter?

Most hearings are held in English. The ARB can hold hearings in French or have a sign language interpreter at your hearing if you request it at least 25 days before your hearing date. If you would like to bring someone to your hearing to interpret for you in any other language, you may bring them with you for that purpose.
