

Appendix E – Midtown Oakville Concepts¹

Figure 1 Concept showing development at threshold building height

Figure 2 Concept showing development that exceeds threshold building height and remains at or below maximum density per development site. Portions of buildings shown in orange are where height thresholds are exceeded in exchange for a commensurate community benefit.

¹ These concepts represent two of many possible scenarios for the development of Midtown Oakville and are based on proposed policy direction provided in the draft OPA.