

Heritage Oakville Advisory Committee

October 29, 2024

- 5 designations from the Heritage Designation Project
 - Glendon House Stone Wall – 225 Bronte Road
 - Glendon House Stone Wall – 231 Bronte Road
 - Glendon House Stone Wall – 235 Bronte Road
 - Dane MacKendrick House – 1314 Lakeshore Road East
 - Chapman House – 2167 Rebecca Street

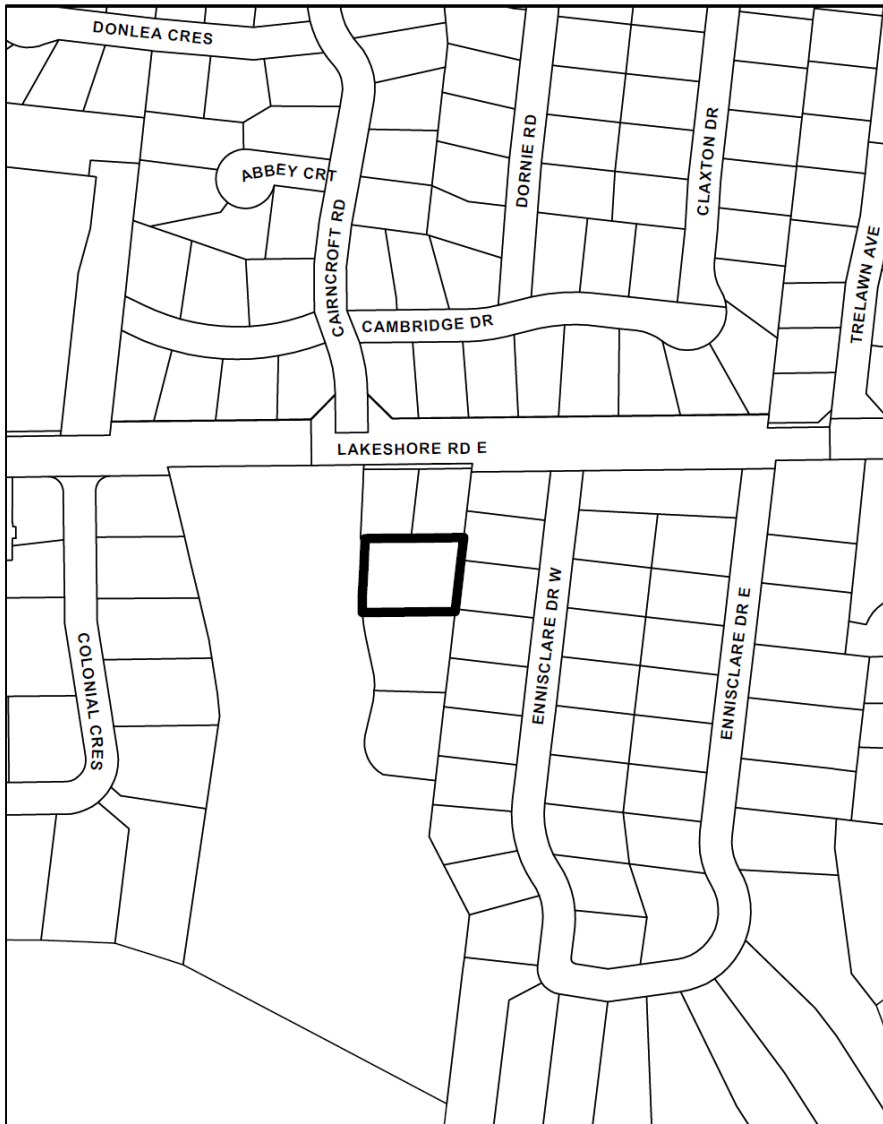

Glendon House
Stone Wall

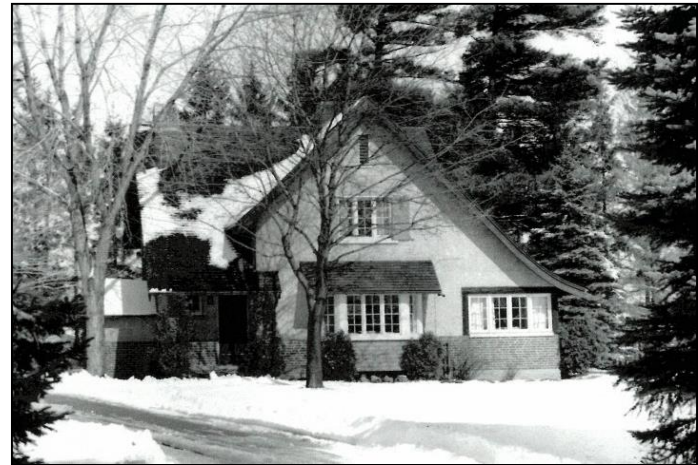

O.Reg 9/06 Evaluation:

- Design/physical value
 - Rare remaining example of an early 20th century fieldstone wall in Oakville.
- Historical/associative value
 - Associated with Bronte's late 19th and early 20th century residential and summer home development history.
- Contextual value
 - Is physically, functionally, visually and historically linked to its surroundings, an early 20th century residential neighbourhood characterized by small to mid-sized homes built for Bronte Village's middle class.

Dane MacKendrick House

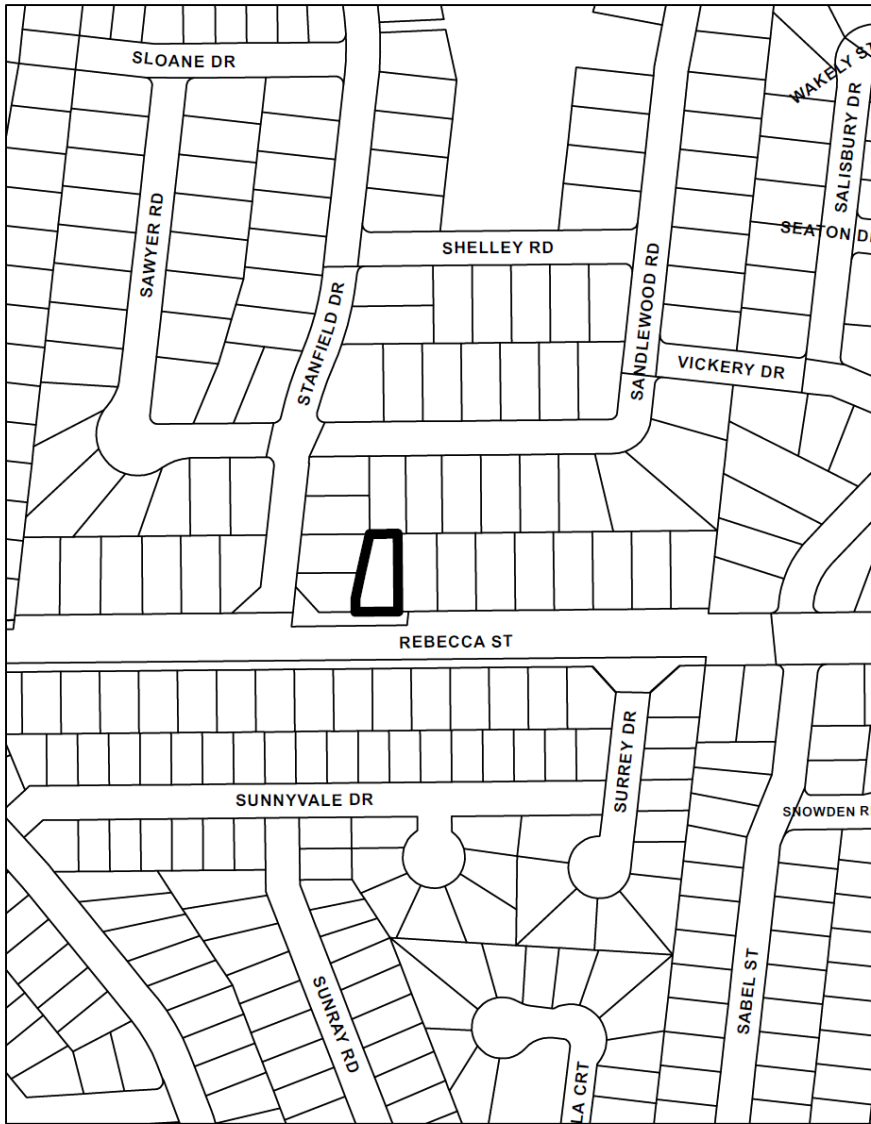

OAKVILLE

1314 Lakeshore Road East

O.Reg 9/06 Evaluation:

- Design/physical value
 - Representative example of a Tudor Revival style house designed in the Arts & Crafts era.
- Historical/associative value
 - Associated with the MacKendrick Family, specifically Dane MacKendrick who built the house.
 - Associated with William Gould Armstrong, a well-known architect who owned the property.
- Contextual value
 - Is important in supporting and maintaining the character of Gairloch Gardens, a designated cultural heritage landscape.
 - Is physically, functionally, visually, and historically linked to its surroundings, particularly the historic Gairloch Gardens estate.

Chapman House

OAKVILLE

2167 Rebecca Street

O.Reg 9/06 Evaluation:

- Design/physical value
 - Representative example of Edwardian Classicism brick farmhouse.
- Historical/associative value
 - Associated with the theme of agriculture and fruit farming in Oakville.
- Contextual value
 - Is physically, visually and historically linked to its surroundings. It contributes to the understanding of the local communities of Bronte and Oakville and its long history of fruit farming.

Staff recommendation:

That a notice of intention to designate be issued under section 29, Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act for the following properties:

- 1) Glendon House Stone Wall at 225 Bronte Road;
- 2) Glendon House Stone Wall at 231 Bronte Road;
- 3) Glendon House Stone Wall at 225 Bronte Road;
- 4) Dane MacKendrick House at 1314 Lakeshore Road East; and
- 5) Chapman House at 2167 Rebecca Street.

