

A bylaw that would ban the sale and use of consumer fireworks within municipal limits would mark another positive step forward for Oakville, enhancing both the quality of life for its residents and the local environment.

Juraj Proner